Writing to the International GeoGames Committee

You have just visited five nation-states that were once a part of the Soviet Union. Write a letter to the International GeoGames Committee. Tell them which nation-state you think is the best site of a future GeoGames. Also advise the committee which nation-state you think is the worst site.

Your letter must include
• a date and a proper heading.
• an introduction that briefly describes your tour. Mention where you visited and your impressions of the nation-states. Tell what kind of information you gathered.
• your recommendation for the best nation-state as a site of a future GeoGames. Give three reasons for your choice.
• your recommendation for the worst nation-state as a site of a future GeoGames. Give three reasons for your choice.
• a concluding statement. Summarize your arguments and restate your opinion.

Your letter should be at least one page in length. Type it or write it neatly in ink.
