The Colorful Trading Game

Object of the Game
To collect trading cards of all five colors and return to your home country.

Starting Rules
- Select a desk from which to start.
- Tear your sheet of paper into eight equal-size cards.
- Look to see which side of the border you are on. All locations on your side are in your home country. To win the game, you must return to any of those desks after you have collected cards of all five colors.

Movement Rules
- On each turn, you may move to a new location. You do not have to move.
- You may move only to a location that is directly connected to your present location by a road.
- Once the game begins, there may be more students at some locations than the number of desks there.

Trading Rules
- You may make one trade during each turn.
- Each trade must be one card for one card.
